8th Mediterranean Ports and Shipping 2020 Exhibition and Conference

Hoteli Bernardin (Portorož), Slovenia, Tuesday 22 to Thursday 24 September 2020

Dear Valued Colleague,

Luka Koper – Port of Koper is delighted to host the 8th Mediterranean Ports and Shipping 2020 Exhibition and Conference, a networking opportunity between foreign and local logistics & transport audience and an insight on investments in the Mediterranean region's maritime transport infrastructure.

The Adriatic Port of Koper is an example of a port which has gained significant importance in just 60 years of existence, growing into a major regional player by carefully planning its infrastructure and hinterland links. Port of Koper has been able to adapt to the shift of production plants moving to Central & Eastern Europe, and to transport requirements focusing on railway and on just-in-time concept. Its future strategy is based on providing new port facilities, digital transformation and betting on the developing Slovenian national railway network, which is undergoing important infrastructure improvements. Port of Koper and its local port community are a good case of a flexible, customer-oriented port business model, and is no coincidence that the venue was chosen with the aim to promote the area and Mediterranean ports in general to foreign logistic services users.

A two days Conference Programme will feature 20 world-class conference speakers addressing topical issues and challenges for the Mediterranean region's transportation and logistics infrastructure. The event shall be attended by more than 150 region's leading shippers, cargo owners, importers / exporters, freight forwarders, logistics companies, terminal operating companies, railway operators, port equipment and services suppliers from countries throughout the Mediterranean region, together with senior executive harbour masters, harbour engineers, port engineers, maintenance supervisors and procurement decision makers.

There will be the commercial opportunity for a limited number of 20 exhibitors and sponsors to network directly with delegates at this major annual international maritime transport Exhibition and Conference trade event for the Mediterranean region.

We look forward to welcoming you to our beautiful country and to your participation at the 8th Mediterranean Ports and Shipping 2020 Exhibition and Conference, held in Portorož, a touristic pearl on the Slovenian coast, only few kilometres from our port.

Yours sincerely,

Dimitrij Zadel
