

CHALLENGES AND FUTURE OPPORTUNITIES FOR PORTS AND TERMINALS

07 MAY 2020

ELIAS MWENYO
MANAGER: BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

www.namport.com

CONTENTS

1. Namport and the Namibian Corridors at a Glance
2. Challenges and Future Opportunities
3. Way Forward

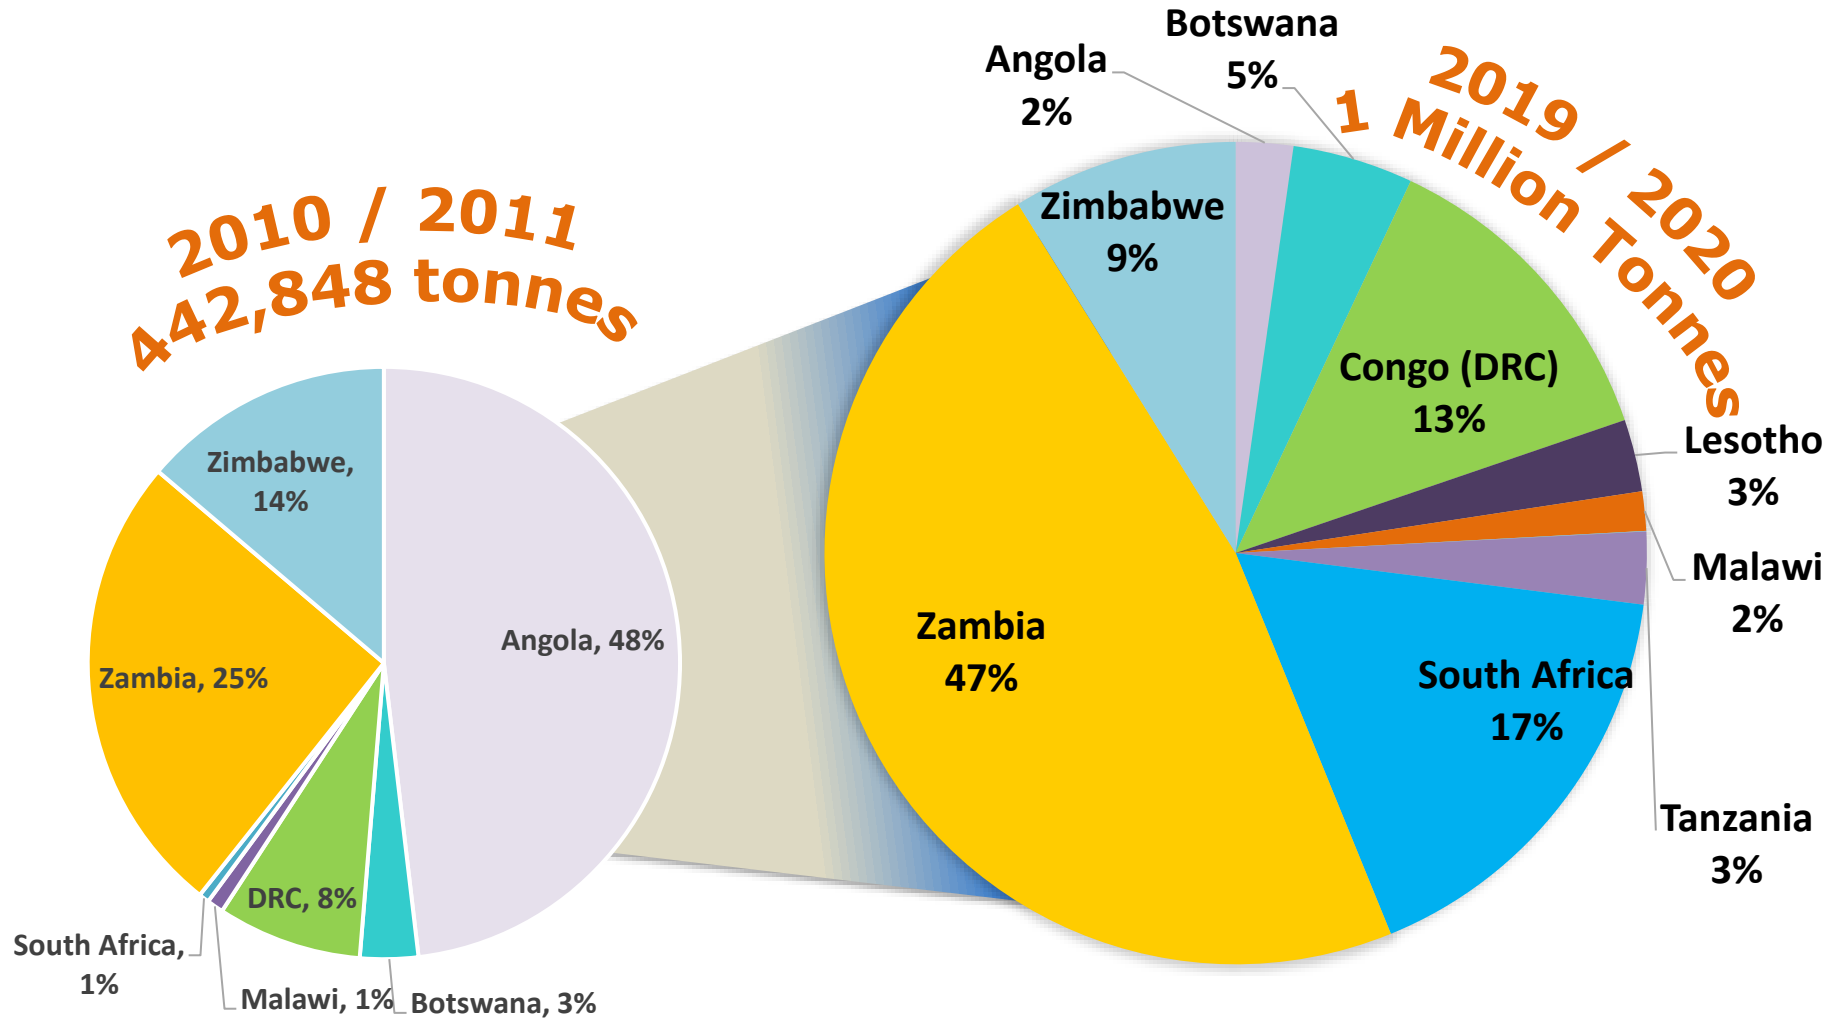

NAMPORT AND THE NAMIBIAN CORRIDORS

- Trans-Kalahari
- Trans-Zambezi (WB-Ndola-Lubumbashi)
- Trans-Cunene
- Trans-Oranje (also Port of Luderitz)
- Serving 300 Million Consumers

Cross-Border volume growth Namibian ports

Port Challenges

- Port Infrastructure
- Cascading Effect
- Changes in Carrier Networks
- Human Resources and Training
- Trade Regulations and Barriers

Future Opportunities

- Increasing Transshipment Cargo
- PPP initiatives
- Transportation and Logistics Support Services

Status of the Walvis Bay New Container Terminal Before COVID 19

www.namport.com

Status of the Walvis Bay New Container Terminal During COVID 19

Way forward

- Continuous enhancement & development of ICT solutions
- Customer will always be King – CRM
- Seamless borders – Single Window
- Innovative & bespoke solutions per customer
- Employee incentives
- Strengthen the capabilities of port and terminals in Africa to react to unforeseen circumstances

Thank You

www.namport.com

