

HON LUKE DONNELLAN

MINISTER FOR ROADS AND ROAD SAFETY
MINISTER FOR PORTS

Victoria has an economy larger than Singapore's, Israel's, Chile's or Ireland's.

Victoria generates 22 per cent of the nation's GDP.

Victoria is home to Australia's biggest container and general cargo port.

Victoria will be home to Australia's largest city by 2030.

Victoria has expanded exports 40 per cent in the last 10 years.

Victoria produces 44 per cent of Australia's processed food exports

Victoria produces 50 per cent of Australia's horticultural exports

Victoria produces 85 per cent of Australia's dairy exports

Port of Melbourne catchment

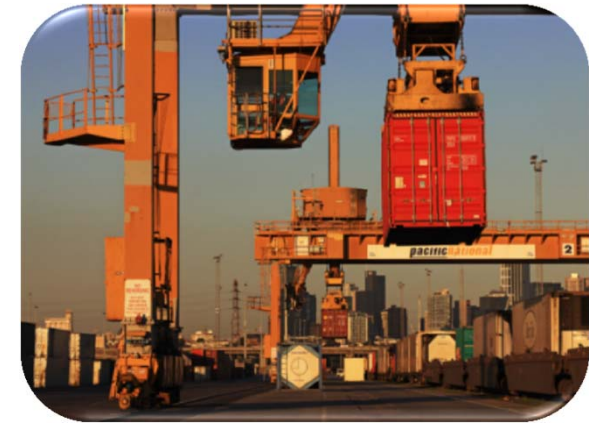

The lease of the Port of Melbourne will

Fund the removal of 50 level crossings

Fund a $200 million Agriculture Infrastructure and Jobs Fund

Mandate an intermodal rail option

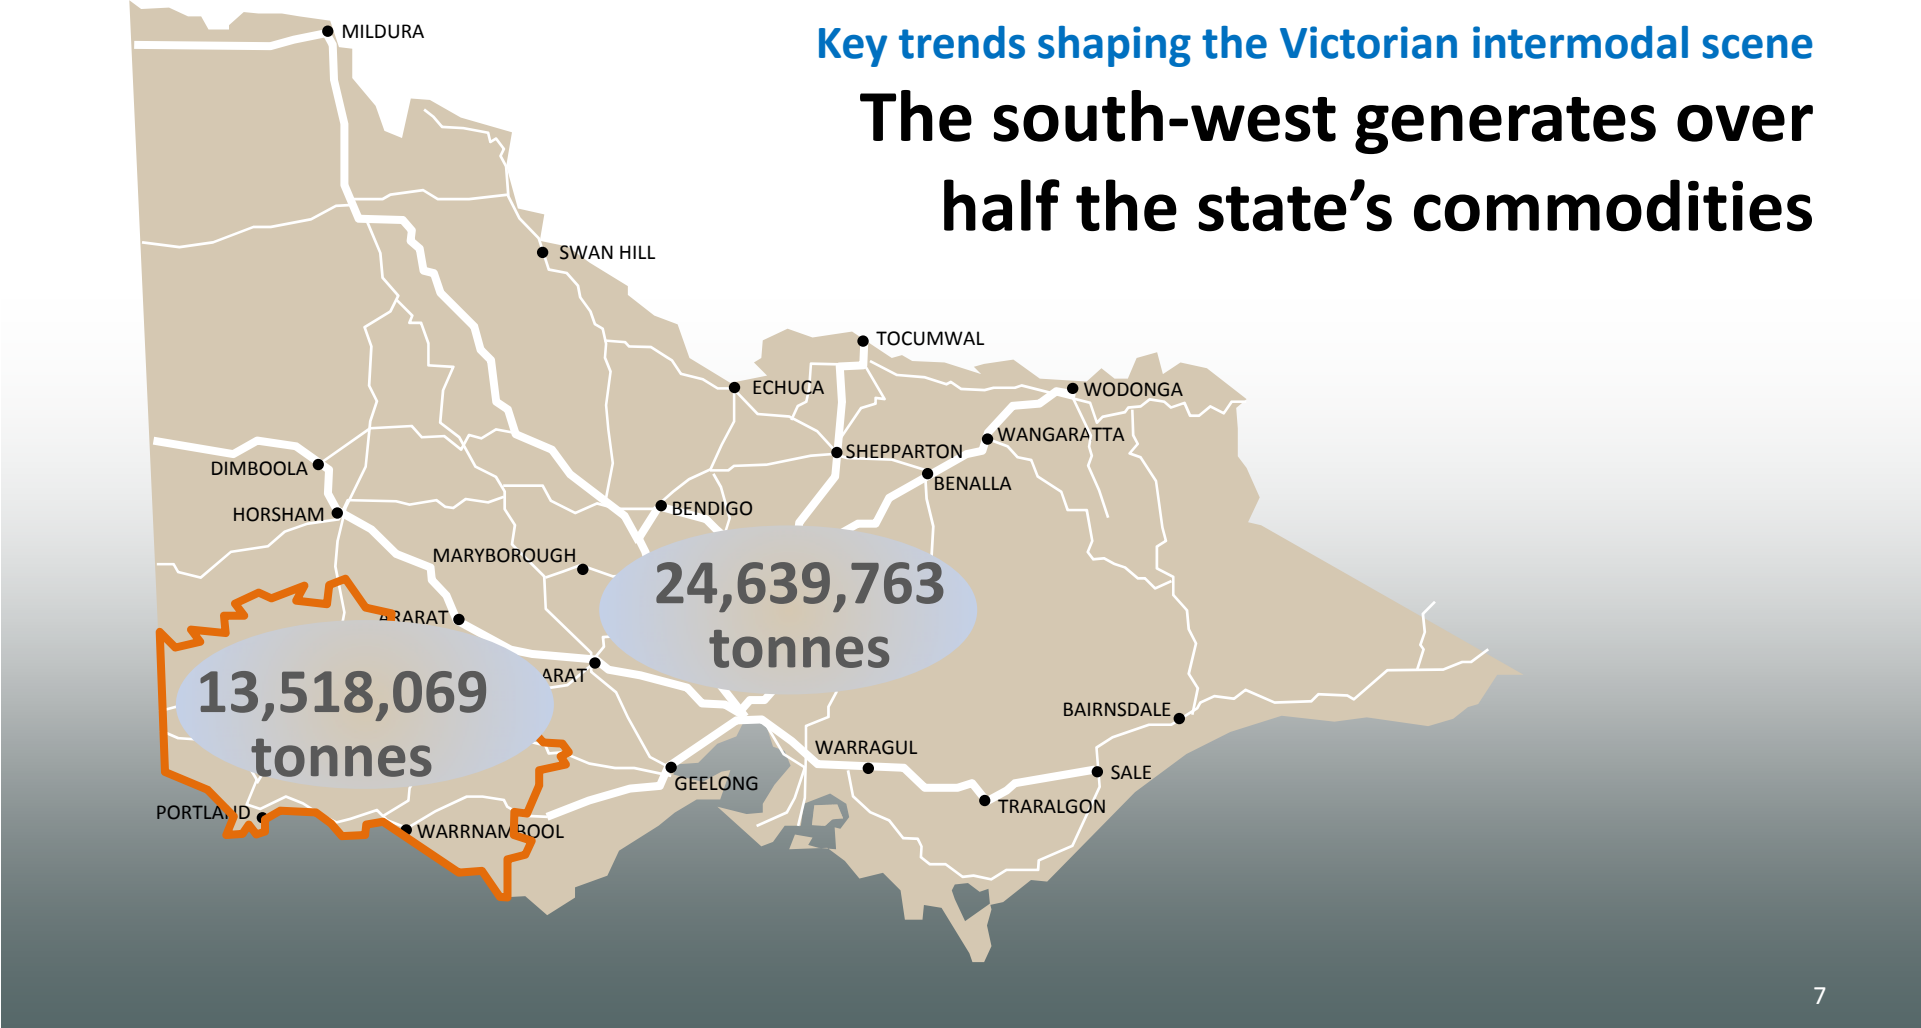

Key trends shaping the Victorian intermodal scene

Regional freight flows

Key trends shaping the Victorian intermodal scene

The south-west generates over half the state's commodities

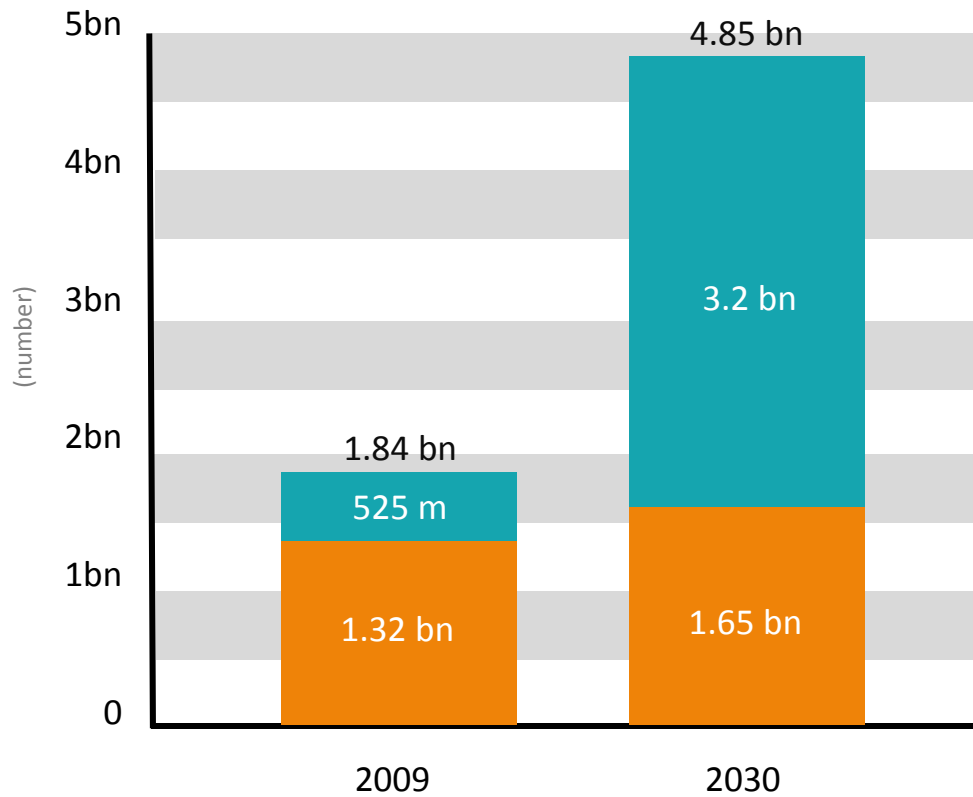

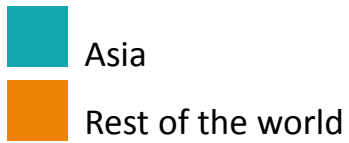

Key trends shaping the Victorian intermodal scene

Growth in containerisation of agricultural commodities

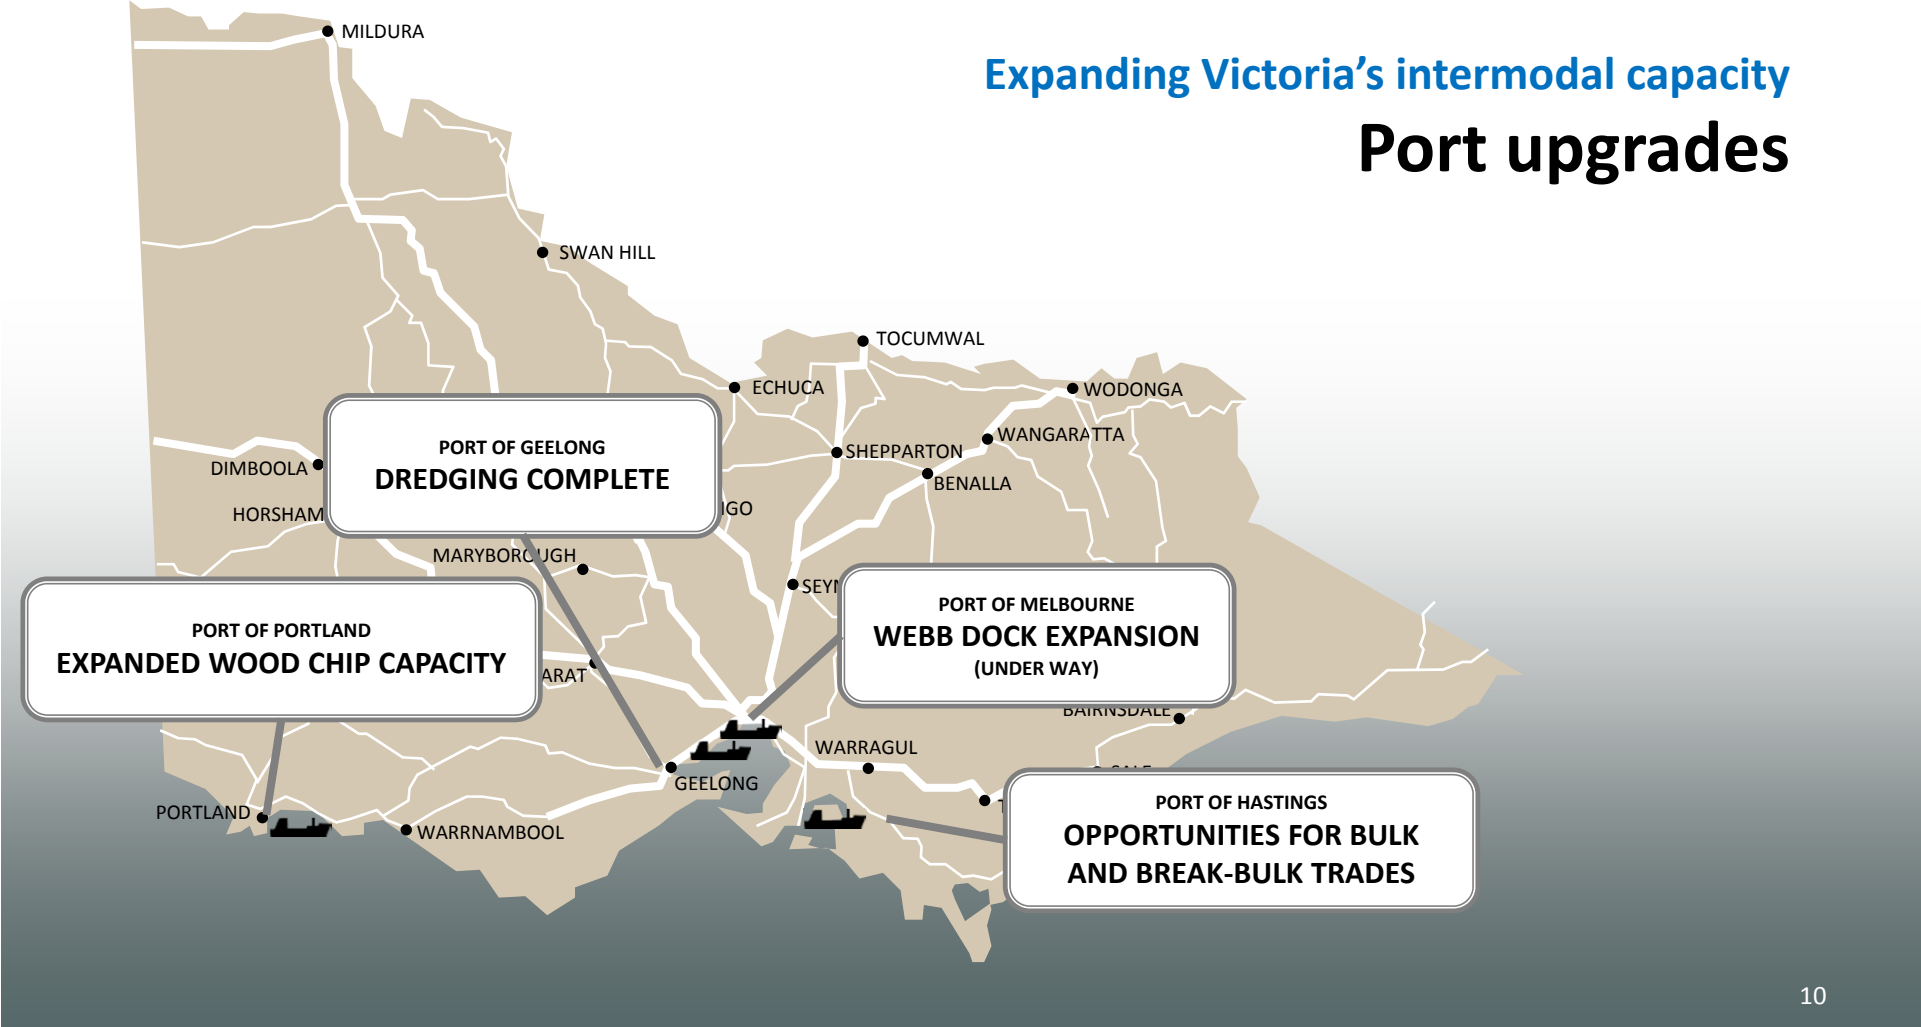

Key trends shaping the Victorian intermodal scene

Growth in the global middle-class population

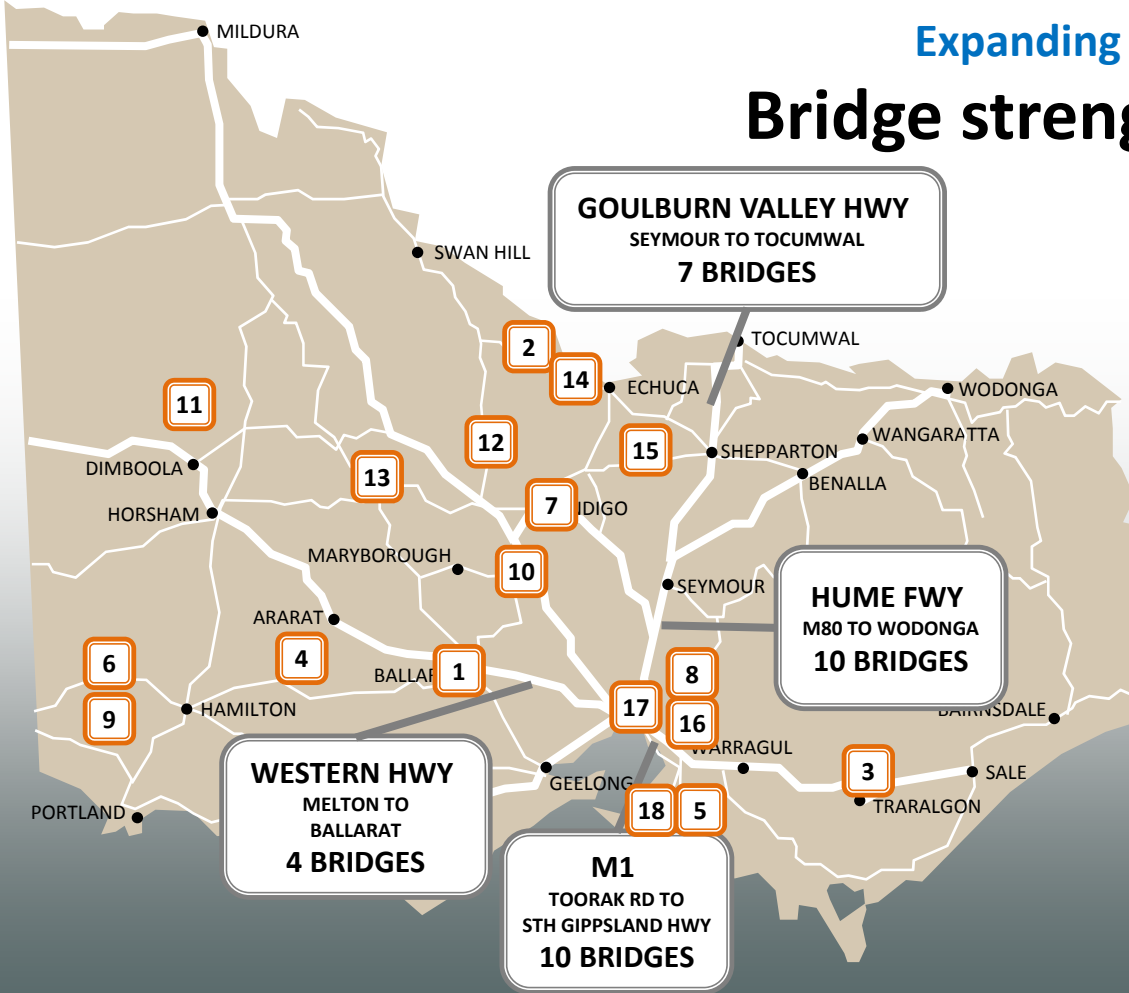

Expanding Victoria's intermodal capacity

Port upgrades

Expanding Victoria's intermodal capacity

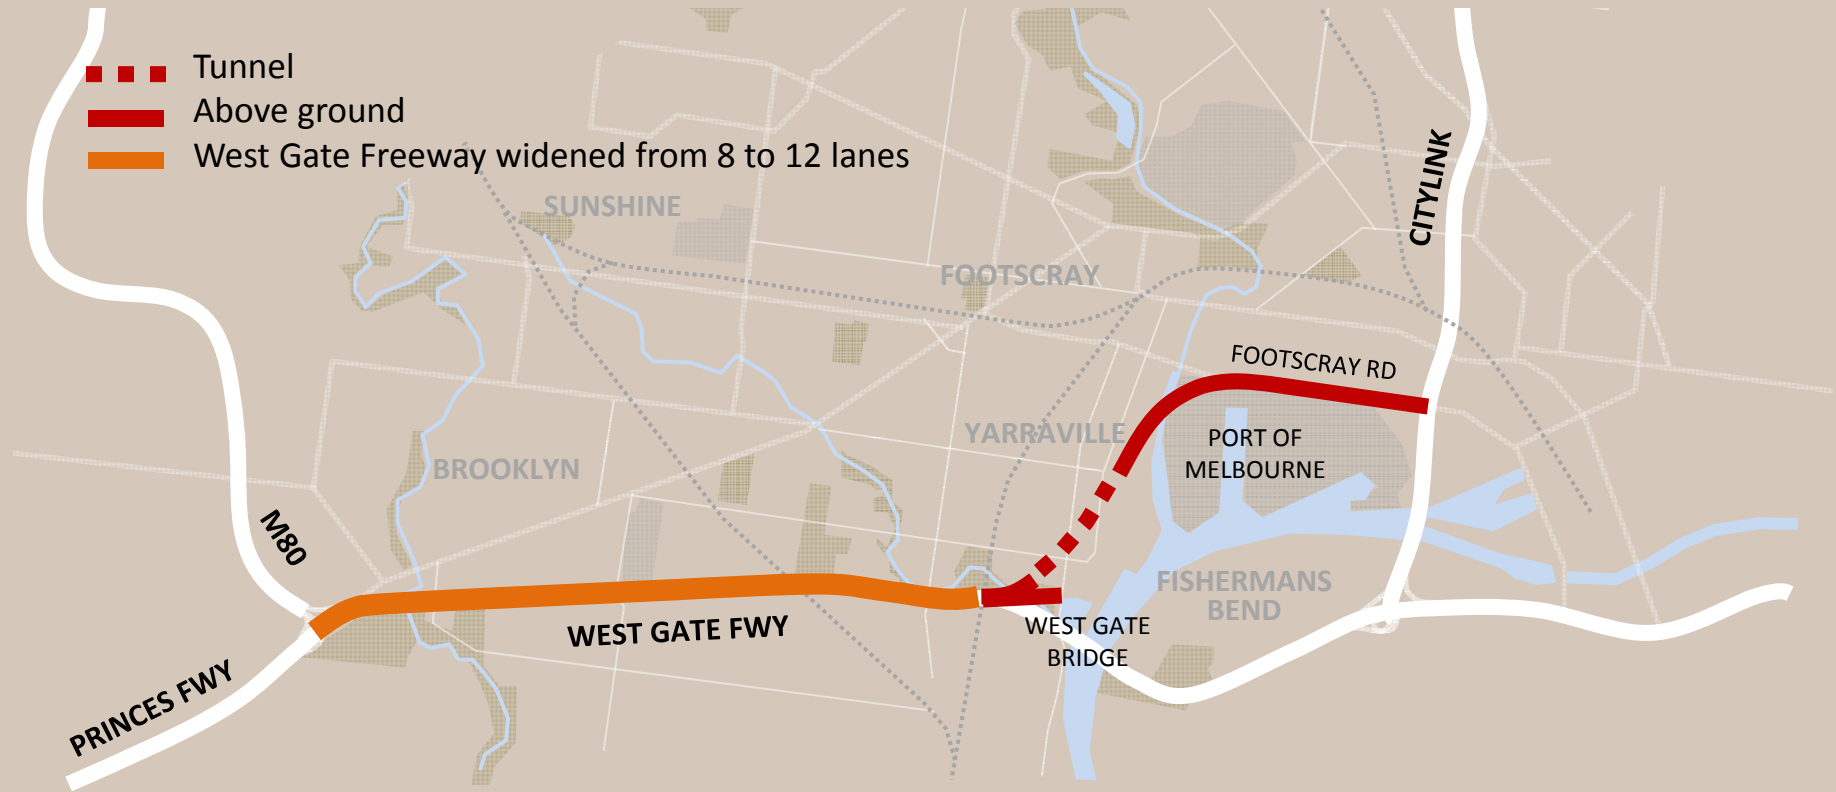

Bridge strengthening for freight

- 1. Buninyong Creek, Buninyong
- 2. Murray River, Koondrook
- 3. Latrobe River, Tyers
- 4. Hopkins River, Maroona
- 5. Devil Bend Creek, Tuerong
- 6. Wennicott Creek, Carapook
- 7. Grassy Flat Race, Strathdale
- 8. Pauls Creek, Tarrawarra
- 9. Merino Creek, Merino
- 10. Campbells Creek, Castlemaine
- 11. Wimmera River, Jeparit
- 12. Bullock Creek, Auchmore
- 13. Cherry Tree Creek, Redbank
- 14. Maher Creek, Torumbarry
- 15. Winter Rd, Girgarre
- 16. Dandenong Creek, Wantirna
- 17. Wallan Rd Richmond
- 18. Kananook Creek, Seaford

Western Distributor

-  Tunnel
-  Above ground
-  West Gate Freeway widened from 8 to 12 lanes

Expanding Victoria's intermodal capacity Murray Basin Rail Project

HON LUKE DONNELLAN

MINISTER FOR ROADS AND ROAD SAFETY
MINISTER FOR PORTS

