A man in a dark suit and glasses is speaking at a podium on the right side of the stage. He is holding a blue folder or document. The podium has a microphone and a small logo on the front.

A panel of seven men is seated at a long table covered with a black cloth and a red patterned runner. They are facing the speaker and the audience. Each man has a nameplate and a microphone in front of him. There are also water bottles and small floral arrangements on the table.
